PEOPLE YOU KNOW.

Citizens and Visitors Briefly Mentioned. We Have Had Our Eye on You.

"I Know Not What the Truth May Be, I Tell it as 'Twas Told to Me."

Judge Ashmore was up from Indianola, Saturday.

Sheriff McCool was officially in the metropolis, Monday.

Ben Mills of Republican City was a Commercial guest, Wednesday evening.

Rev. Taylor, the district missionary, occupied the Congregational pulpit, Sunday.

Mrs. H. F. Hartman was up from Oxford, the early days of the week, visiting relatives.

Will Fisher and D. E. Polly of Wauwata were present at The Minstrels second annual.

J. W. Hupp and wife were over from Lebanon, Wednesday, on business-pleasure bent.

Deputy Collector Stewart was up from Hastings, Monday, on business of his office.

Frank H. Spearman left Tuesday night on a business trip to Lincoln and Omaha. He will return this evening.

H. E. Waugh, S. E. Ralsten and Will Mc-Cartey were over from Lebanon, Tuesday, having business before the local land office.

W. G. Thomas, of Crete, owner of a large horse ranch on the Arickaree, in Colorado, shipped three car load of horses from the McCook stock yards to Michigan, this week.

Mr. Joseph Robb of Albia, Iowa, is with his son in the profound sorrow which has so suddenly come into his young life, in the death of his wife. He returned home, Wednesday evening.

Mr. J. Albert Wells departed for New York City yesterday, to lay in a stock of goods for the spring and summer trade, which the gentleman assures us will more or less astonish the natives.

Mrs. William Avery, the aged mother of the deceased, came from Spearfish, South Dakota, to gaze for a last time upon her deceased daughter, Mrs. Robb, before Mother Earth should claim her own.

Henry Lehman, A. L. King and S. E. Solomon of Culbertson mixed among metropol-itans, Tuesday evening. The gentlemen were on their way to the state irrigation meeting at Lincoln, but had a change of heart upon reaching McCook.

Mr. Chas. D. Robb, editor of the Michigan City (Ind.) Daily News, is here mingling his tears with those of his brother Joe, whose late bereavement has touched this community's sympathies' profoundest depths. He will leave for his home, tomorrow evening.

J. P. Lindsay, register-elect, was over from Beaver City, Tuesday, making arrangements for his final removal into our midst. The senator has rented the Coupe property on the corner of Melvin and Douglass, one of the most convenient rental properties in the city.

William Weygint, C. H. Boyle, H. H. Pickens, W. S. Fitch, J. P. Squires left for the irrigation convention at Lincoln, Tuesday evening. The eastern part of the county was represented by A. M. Barton of Indianola, C. W. Beck of Bartley, A. F. Hardin and Ora Clark of Cambridge.

Ezra T. Maddux, of the Stinking water, was a caller on Monday. E. T. proposes to hold his fine homestead eleven months longer and then get "a title clear" to as fine a quarter of land as can be found in our county.— Imperial Republican. Mr. Maddux is a member of the firm of Gray & Maddux, liverymen, of this city.

Mr. George Hocknell, president of the Hastings Fuel Co., recently shipped a carload of nut coal to his wife at McCook and she took her horse and buggy and drove out among the destitute farmers and gave them orders for coal as she thought they needed, thus giving away the car-load to the suffering people.—Hastings Independent.

Squire Colvin and Marshal Bennett went east on No. 4, last evening. They will visit Omaha, Lincoln, Plattsmouth and other points. The Marshal will return in a few days; but the Squire will be absent about two weeks, and on his return will be accompanied by his family, who have been visiting in Plattsmouth during the past two weeks.

Mrs. R. T. Tubbs was summoned to Buena Vista, Colo., the close of last week, by the sorrowful news of the death of her daughter there on Thursday, the fifth inst. The deceased was a consumptive and spent some time in McCook last summer in search of relief. The bereaved have the sincere sympathy of this community in their hour of sadness.

Miss L. Ella Hart and Miss Anna Jessen invited a few friends in at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. C. F. Babcock, Monday night, to discuss the merits and miseries of the ever popular game—"High Five." There were present (besides the hostesses): Misses Mary Myers and Leta Harlocker, of Hastings, and Messrs. A. C. Ebert, M. W. Eaton, L. W. McConnell and W. S. Kimmell. The luncheon served was both unique and enjoyable.

Dr. A. J. Thomas, the McCook dentist made his monthly visit to Benkelman on Tuesday. The doctor has recently acquired title to a valuable half-section of land lying near Ives upon which his family, now living in McCook, will reside after March 1. Mr.
Thomas does not intend to abandon the dental business, but will continue to have his main office at McCook and a branch office at Stratton and Benkelman, but will devote a portion of his time to stock raising.—Benkelman Democrat.

WE "PASS" NOBODY.

Engineer Tyler Sundayed at McCook, getting repairs on his engine.

Roadmaster Josselyn of Orleans was a headquarters visitor, Saturday.

Engineer Aufdenbrink from Curtis is preparing to move his family to McCook.

Buy a house from S. H. Colvin on the monthly installment plan and save money.

Master Mechanic Archibald has been having a seance with snow blockades, this week.

Robt. Ballance, foreman locomotive and car department at Holyoke, was a city visitor, Sunday.

Enginemen made good wages in the last cold snap. All snow plows being out and very much in use.

Lovell Viersen, extra engineer at Holyoke, has been moved to McCook, where he will abide for the present.

Sol. Brace, an old-time engineer on the B. & M., is now pulling passenger between Red Cloud and Oxford.

Engine 133 had her cylinders loosened up so bad bucking snow, Bohnstedt engineer, that she is shopped for several days.

Jud Willard and Will Eaton, two of the B. & M. boys, have been changed from Holyoke to McCook.—Holyoke Herald.

There is much sympathy expressed for engineer Ed. McKay, who buried his little son in Longview, last Saturday morning.

It is said that the revival meetings held at Holyoke, Colo., are attracting many railroad men, several of whom have joined the church.

The commotion, arising from a reduction in forces and several Irish promotions, has about subsided, and those who are left are very thankful for a job this cold weather.

Jud. Willard, engineer, we hear was offered a switch engine on the D., U. & P. road, but said the hills were too high and the tracks were narrow so he took a job in Denver.

Mrs. S. Moore and family left, Tuesday, for McCook where they expect to remain.
Mr. Moore formerly occupied a position in the round house at this place. Their corps of friends regret their departure.—Red Cloud Republican.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Dillon are in deep sorrow over the death of their infant son, which was buried Tuesday. The child was born on Sunday. Every sympathetic heart goes out to the bereaved young parents in the loss of their first-born.

We understand that the O. R. C. ball given at McCook, Thursday evening, was a grand success both financially and for pleasure, and all who attended were well pleased with the management, for the boys at McCook don't do things on the halves, they go whole hog or none.—Eckley Republican.

In addition to our railroad men being capable in their work we find some of them to be gifted in the song and dance "profess," and the entertainment of Thursday night part of which was rendered by the R. R. boys, F. S.
Reid, A. Jackson, Ed. Farrell and F. H.
Elliott, show these gentlemen to be artists.
